

Activity 3 - Prints

Prints

On the piece of paper provided, put each person's fingerprints around the page. Each person at your table should choose an ink color and firmly press each finger on both hands onto the ink pad before placing it on the paper. Feel free to place fingerprints randomly or in a set pattern. The outcome is totally up to you. When you're done, be sure to get the paper to Lora (and make sure to write your name on the opposite side of the paper). The fingerprint covered paper will be the cover for your book.

Once you have finished each person's fingerprints, head to the banner on the wall. Each person should pick a paint color and carefully paint the entirety of their hand (right or left, totally up to you) and place their palm firmly against the paper leaving a handprint. Head to the sinks in the bathroom (or the back wall of the kitchen) to wash paint off.
